Well if it is not a beautiful thing, than it is in fact the most beautiful thing. After all it is the only thing, yes the only thing, which keeps all that blood bumping through your veins. If you chose to believe otherwise, if are the celibate type, you are missing out at the least and a coward at the worst. You simply cannot truly believe that the glory between your legs, the thing that produces the only sensations that matter, is harmful by any stretch of the imagination. Maybe that is why this world, our world, is so mad; maybe that alone makes it ugly. Passion is the most unbridled in the rolodex of human emotions, so it must be the very thing that drives us to irrational conclusions. It sends on trips...
