Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.His Eye is on the Sparrow is a family saga with humor and an uplifting positive theme in the Judeo-Christian beliefs that are as much a part of this upper middle-class mid-western family as the comfort and privilege that was never flaunted, never verbalized, and seldom even realized by the youngest daughter, Olivia Mason. There is a brief intro to Little Egypt, also known as Southern Illinois, with a brief encounter with the lack of modern conveniences, and an aborted attempt with gun thieves. Grandma s inspiring determination to keep the guns and preserve the heritage is woven throughout the story. The new family home via a gun deal, a Duris Egg Flintlock, gave pause, and the conflict on teachings at school; values, customs, speech, but Grandma lighted the way. Justice does prevail, quietly, while Climbing through Fences provides an acceptable solution to a dastardly act on children. Olivia, affectionately called Toot, grows up in one of America s most defining hours: while her brother serves in the War in the Pacific, Toot and her...
