Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The World Book, Vol. 9 of 10: Organized Knowledge in Story and Picture In the great movement which has as its slogan Back to the farm, the school garden is having no slight influence. Today there are in Europe over 100,000 gardens cultivated by pupils, and the School Garden Association of America has members in every state in the Union and in most of the Canadian provinces, as well as in the dependencies of the United States. A garden is a practical laboratory in which the pupils gain first-hand knowledge of the principles of nature study, agriculture, botany, manual training and physical exercise, and gardening is easily correlated with arithmetic, geography, drawing, composition, bookkeeping and other school subjects. Furthermore, the cultivation of the soil is of fundamental importance in helping solve the problem of keeping the world's population fed. School gardens are, therefore, an advantage from every point of view. Best results are achieved in those communities where the school garden is conducted as a part of the regular curriculum, and the board provides...
