When the discovery sought by a bill can only be assistant to the relief prayed, a ground of demurrer to the relief will 1 also extend to the discovery; but if the discovery may have a further purpose, the plaintiff may be entitled to it, though he has no title to relief. In considering, therefore, these several grounds of demurrer to relief, such as may, and such as cannot, extend to discovery likewise, will be distinguished. I. The general objects of the jurisdiction of a court of equity have been noticed in a former page; and from thence it may be collected, that the jurisdiction, when it assumes a power of decision, is to be exercised, i, where the principles of law, by which the ordinary courts are guided, give a right, but the powers of those courts are not sufficient to afford a complete remedy, or their modes of proceeding are inadequate to the purpose; 2, where the courts of ordinary jurisdiction are made instruments of injustice; 3, where the principles of law by which the ordinary courts are guided give no right, but upon the principles of universal justice the interference of the judicial power is necessary to prevent a wrong, and the positive law is silent; and it may also be collected that courts of equity, without deciding upon the rights of the parties, administer to the ends of justice by assuming a jurisdiction, 4, to...
