

Bridging the Higher Education Divide: Strengthening Community Colleges and Restoring the American Dream the Report of the Century Foundation Task Force on Preventing Community Colleges from Becoming Separate and Unequal

By The Century Foundation

Brookings Institution. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Bridging the Higher Education Divide: Strengthening Community Colleges and Restoring the American Dream the Report of the Century Foundation Task Force on Preventing Community Colleges from Becoming Separate and Unequal, The Century Foundation, Education has always been a key driver in our nation's struggle to promote social mobility and widen the circle of people who can enjoy the American Dream. No set of educational institutions better embodies the promise of equal opportunity than community colleges. Two-year colleges have opened the doors of higher education for low-income and working-class students as never before, and yet, community colleges often lack the resources to provide the conditions for student success. Furthermore, there is a growing racial and economic stratification between two- and four-year colleges, producing harmful consequences. Bridging the Higher Education Divide faces those grave realities in unblinking fashion. Led by co-chairs Anthony Marx, the president of the New York Public Library and former president of Amherst College, and Eduardo Padron, the president of Miami Dade College, the task force recommends ways to reduce the racial and economic
